4. Cost and Charges & investment Scenarios:

Spreads:

The Spread values vary for different accounts as well as depend on the instrument traded. The Spread is floating; therefore, it may increase depending on the market conditions and the volatility. Spread is a cost present both at entering and exiting a trade, and it applies to all the accounts.

Example

Volume in Instrument traded	[1 standard lot in EUR/USD]
Current Bid/Ask price	1.00000/1.00004
Spread (difference between Bid/Ask price)	0.00004
Cost Calculation	1*100,000 * 0.00004 = 4 USD
(volume traded i.e. lots*point size*spread)

Swap / Rollover Fee

As explained above, the Swap fee is the cost for keeping a position held open overnight which can be positive or negative. A rollover occurs when reinvesting funds from a mature security into a new issue of the same or a similar security or moving a forex position to the following delivery date.

Example

Account Currency: USD

Pair: EURGBP

Lots: 5

Type of Order: Sell

1

Pair Quote Currency: GBP

Swap Fee:

Swap charge for 1 day in Quote Currency for 5 Lots	3.00 GBP
1 Day Swap Charge in Account Currency	3.93 USD at GBPUSD 1.31075

The Company provides the option for Islamic Forex accounts, also known as swap-free Forex accounts which are compliant with the very strictest interpretations of sharia and completely free of riba of any kind. This works by eliminating the usual carry payments and swap charges that normally apply for positions held overnight or over weekends.

For additional information on inactive (dormant) accounts, you may refer to the Client Services Agreement uploaded on the Company's website.

Fees for internal transfers:

In the event that a client submits a request to transfer funds internally between his own accounts of different currency, he will be charged 0.2%. If his accounts are of the same currency, then no fees shall be charged.

Example:

Client submits a request to transfer 100 EUR from his account to his USD account.

0.2% fee will be applied on the 100 EUR.

100 * 0.2 /100 = 0.2 EUR.

100 - 0.2 = 99.8. This 99.8 will be converted in USD in his USD account.

This is the cost for converting realised profits and losses as well as any costs and charges that are denominated in a currency other than the base currency of your trading account.

Example:

Account Currency	EUR
Pair	EURGBP
